

JOSEPH S. GILL

shanegill25@gmail.com
Independence, MO
660-229-5277
www.shanegill.com

OBJECTIVES

Industrial Controls Technician position

SUMMARY

Industrial Maintenance Technician with over fifteen years of experience. Versatile, creative with experience in rebuilding, maintaining, troubleshooting, and operating Industrial Machines. Able to quickly identify and correct problems in electronic, pneumatic and mechanical systems.

EXPERIENCE

Excide Technologies– KCMO Punched Grid Plant

Senior Maintenance Technician June 2017 – June 2019

- Installing, maintaining, troubleshooting and repairing plant production and facilities support equipment, utilizing electrical, mechanical and pneumatic schematics and diagrams.
- Troubleshooting and repairing/replacing PLCs, VFDs, and Servos.
- Running equipment service including running conduit and sizing wire, wiring motors, running cabling and control wiring.

Orbital ATK – Small Caliber Systems | Lake City Army Ammunition Plant

Operations Technician – 20mm Case Priming September 2003 – May 2017

- Operating, Maintaining, and Repairing Industrial Presses
- Rebuilt and assisted in the modernization of a specialized V&O Rotary Press which originally began production in 1954
- Worked in other 20mm departments as Production Support as Contract demands required

SKILLS

- Well-versed in Mathematics
- Critical & Creative Thinking
- Proficient with Studio 5000
- Machinist Experience
- Quality Control Analysis
- SPC Data Collection
- Complex Equipment Repairs
- Process Trainer
- Blueprint Interpretation
- Forklift Operation
- Highly Proficient in MS Office
- Mech., Elec., & Pneu. Troubleshooting

EDUCATION

Metropolitan Community College

In progress - Associates of Engineering

- Calculus III and College Chemistry II courses completed

Lexington High School

May 2002

- Four-Year member of the Academic Team, which went to State three times